Sunset over Eigg and Rum from Ach na skia Croft

From spring to Autumn the days are longer here than further south and in June it barely gets dark.

Ach na skia Croft is set in an enviable location, a mile past Arisaig (38mils. from Fort William) where the road drops down to the sea and everyone gets their cameras out when they see the incredible views across the sea to the islands. From your holiday home here you can watch the view any time you like and catch the perfect mood for the photo.

Arisaig is a small village with a well-stocked general store, 2 small hotels, P.O., restaurant and gift shop. From the harbour day trips run to the isles of Eigg, Rum or Muck, often spotting minke whales close up to the boat. If you travel by train we can collect you (or your luggage if you want to stretch the legs) from the station.

To the rear of the croft towers Creag Mhor, from which you can see the outer Hebridean islands on a clear day. The sun can set in vivid reds and pinks over the sea and in winter often over snow-capped mountains.

Whichever of our properties you stay in you will be treated to the ever-changing views across the sea to the Cuillin mountains on the nearby islands of Rum and Skye and the apparently flat-topped island of Eigg.

Facilities at Ach na skia Croft

Ach na skia Croft Accommodation

Creag Mhor & Glen Mhor Lodges

4 star

A covered verandah leads into a lobby with washer/dryer, freezer, coat hanging and a boot/coat drier. There is a lounge and spacious, fully equipped kitchen/dining room. The bathroom has a bath with an electric shower. Double bedroom (with "Teas-made") and bedroom with full-sized bunks plus a single bed. There is space for a cot in the double bedroom. There are chairs for watching the sunset from the verandah and a picnic table. No pets allowed.

Cedar log chalets combine the beauty and warmth of pine walls with tasteful decoration and all the convenience of a modern house, with central heating, double glazing and a very high level of insulation and sound-proofing. The Lodges are quite private from each other, with separate entry points. Glen Mhor is reached by a track that runs below the Lodges and parking is next to the gorse bush. Creag Mhor's parking is adjacent to the other end of the Lodges. Panoramic views across the sea to west and north-west.

Island View

3 star

Cedar chalet in its own fenced grounds with grass, trees and a picnic table. A covered verandah catches the sun and looks west to Sigg and Rum. Inside there is a good sized open-plan living/dining/kitchen area. The kitchen is fully equipped and has a washer/drier. The bathroom has a bath with an electric shower. One double bedroom plus a smaller bedroom with 2'6" bunks and a full-size single. It is double glazed throughout and has midge screens available for some windows if required. Parking space.

N.B. Island View is not suitable for a cot. One dog is accepted in this property.

The Cottage

adjoins our own house but is entirely separate, with its own spacious and unusual garden and picnic table. On the ground floor there is a lounge with living flame "wood" stove, fully equipped kitchen/dining room, double bedroom, large lobby with washing machine and bathroom with bath and shower. Upstairs is a twin bedded room with space for cot. Views north and west to Skye, Sigg and Rum. Parking space. No pets allowed.

All properties have thermostatically controlled electric heating, fridge/freezer or fridge and freezer, iron and ironing board, indoor and outdoor clothes drying facilities, T.V., DVD player, hi-fi, microwave, coat/boot drier, Dyson, own parking space. Cot, high chair and video player available. There is Wi-Fi reception in the properties. Bring your own laptop. Electricity on £1 coin meter.

Things to do in the area

Walking

there are walks for all tastes and the chance to really get away from it all. The Local Ranger leads Guided walks each week and is a wealth of information on local and natural history.

Beaches

lots of lovely beaches, sandy or rocky, to walk or drive to. The famous white sands of Morar and Camusdarach, where Local Hero was filmed, are close by.

Ferries

visit Sigg, Muck, Rum, Knoydart or Skye for a day. Each has a very different character.

Golf

try the very well kept 9 hole course by the sea at Traigh (1.5mils.) Clubs for hire.

Boats/Kayaks

bring your boat. It's a kayaker's paradise! You are likely to see seals, heron, oyster catchers, maybe otter.

Fishing

hire boat and rod on Loch Morar, go to sea with Ewan Nicholson or fish the river at the end of the croft.

Bird watching varied bird life with lapwings playing in the field, Golden and Sea eagles, heron etc. etc.

Trains

in summer you can take the beautiful train journey from Fort William to Mallaig by steam train.

Eating out

there is a range of places to eat out, to suit all pockets, or try a Thai take-away.

Mallaig

the fishing port of Mallaig is 7mils. away. Watch the fleet come in and land the fish. There's an indoor pool and gym, a Heritage Centre to learn the history of Mallaig area, gift shops, banks etc.

How to get to Ach na skia Croft

Take the A830 from Fort William towards Mallaig. The road is slow in places; the journey should take about 45 minutes. On reaching Arisaig you will find a choice of roads now that the new road bypasses the village. You can continue on the new road to the second turn-off, which is sign-posted to Ach na skia Croft or you can turn off and go through the village. Once through the village, turn first left and then left again, on the coast road. The road rises up away from the sea and past the R.C. church on the left. After a few more bends and the second left turn the road drops down towards the sea again. After a sharp right hand bend, with the small Cnoc na Faire Hotel set back on the hill to the left, you will see the Back of Keppoch road end on your left at the bottom of the hill. Pass this road end and we are the white house on the right (the first house on the right after leaving the village). Distance from village is about a mile.
